jQuery:

What can you do with jQuery?

- jQuery simplifies client-side scripting of HTML. It can help to handle events, create animations, develop Ajax applications, create abstractions for low level interaction and animation.

How it can help you as web developer?

- Allows you to use Ajax and JSON parsing, DOM manipulation based on CSS selectors, you can use events, effects and animations.

What are CDNs? What kind of benefit you get if you use them?

- Content delivery network – system of computers, that cache files for users. It can greatly reduce the load time of your pages.